Spring 2016

The exceptional style of St. Teresa's teachings are intensely personal, based upon her own experiences, coupled with the graces she received from God to be able to understand and explain the process of spiritual growth.

St. Teresa of Jesus, Doctor of the Church

The title 'Doctor of the Church' is an honorary title granted to those whom the Church considers as having made an important contribution to theology or better said – our theological understanding of ourselves as Church and disciples in the Holy Spirit.

This 'title' is based on charisms listed by St. Paul in his 1st Letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor 12:28) where after Apostles and Prophets he lists 'teachers.' St. Paul further explains (Eph 4:12) that the teaching is to equip the believers to serve and to build up the body of Christ. When the Church begins to examine the teaching of a particular individual 'teacher' they look for three requirements: high degree of sanctity, eminent learning/teaching, and the proclamation by the Church (Supreme Pontiff or General Council). In the Western Church the four pre-eminent contributors to our theology were recognized in the Middle Ages as being St. Gregory the Great, St. Ambrose, St. Augustine, and St. Jerome. In the Eastern Church it is St. John Chrysostom, St. Basil the Great, and St. Gregory Nazianzen. After these great teachers the Church recognized the universal value of the teachings of several Saints, including St. Teresa of Avila in 1970.

Today we have 36 Doctors of the Church.

When given this honorary title of 'doctor,' many of the individual 'doctors' are given an epithet that expresses the nature of their teaching or area of expertise, e.g., John of the Cross was named 'Doctor mysticus' (Mystic Doctor), when the Church conferred this title on Teresa of Jesus it was with the already popularly recognized title of 'Spiritualim Mater'-Mother of the Spiritual.

The exceptional style of Teresa's teachings is that among the many spiritual writers on mystical/spiritual theology hers was not one based on 'speculative theology' – that is, taking a truth and working out the consequences of that truth – her teaching is intensely personal, based upon her own experiences coupled with the graces she received from God to be able to understand and explain the process of spiritual growth.

Through the powerful intercession of St. Teresa of Jesus, Doctor of the Church may we be equipped to serve and to build up the Body of Christ.

In Him,

Fr. Stephen

Year of Mercy Pilgrimage

The Door of Mercy is a special Holy Door which Pope Francis has asked to be opened in every Diocese during the Extraordinary Holy Year in order to allow the faithful in every part of the world to experience the Mercy of the Father in its fullness. A plenary indulgence may be obtained by visiting the door when linked to a celebration of Reconciliation and Eucharist; a profession of faith and praying for the Pope.

The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower in San Antonio has been designated as one of these locations. The Discalced Carmelite Friars of the Oklahoma Province who staff the Basilica welcome those who wish to make a pilgrimage during this special time until the Jubilee year closes on November 20th 2016.
